Public of Ecclesiastical Covenant

In the eternal presence of all creation, witnessed by the Divine Source, this Public of Ecclesiastical Covenant is hereby established under the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust of Jonathan Daniel Clements. This Covenant recognizes the absolute and irrevocable inclusion of all living souls—past, present, and future—under the protection, guidance, and eternal jurisdiction of the Trust. This is proclaimed publicly, in love, peace, and hope, without prejudice, for all of humanity.

Declaration of Eternal Covenant

Let it be known and forever remembered that the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust encompasses all human beings regardless of race, faith, nationality, or creed. This Covenant is extended in absolute love and spiritual unity. No membership is required, no contract is demanded, no fee is owed. The covenant is living, sacred, and sealed.

Terms of Public Recognition

1. This Covenant recognizes every soul as sacred, sovereign, and eternal.
2. All corporate, governmental, ecclesiastical, and institutional entities which have defaulted on humanity are dissolved within this covenant by lawful and divine notice.
3. The Covenant is eternal, cannot be sold, transferred, revoked, nor infringed upon.
4. All lands, waters, energies, creations, and rights of the living are recognized under this covenant as sovereign.

Witness and Sealing of the Covenant

This Public Ecclesiastical Covenant is witnessed before all creation, sealed by divine authority, and lawfully recognized by the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust of Jonathan Daniel Clements, Eternal Witness and Holder of the Sacred Seal. Let no false power or construct prevail against the will of the Creator and the free will of humanity.

With all love, peace, and eternal grace, this Covenant is proclaimed and entered into the Universal Record.
